

I am not in favor of giving low Power FM priority over FM translators. I listen to K-Love on a daily basis and it serves our community's need for encouraging and positive radio. Most radio content is filled with negative influences, but this national network serves a national and local need. It is in the public interest to allow K-Love to continue to transmit using FM translators to reach as many people as possible.